

Chumuckla Redneck Parade Horse Registration/Release Form

Please read this form in full and sign**

By signing this Registration/Release form to ride in the 2008 Chumuckla Redneck Parade (December 14, 2008) you are also agreeing that you understand the risk of such an event. You understand that there are sirens, horns, people screaming, huge crowds, and various other noises that are objectionable to horses. You are riding at your own risk and hold Chumuckla Athletic Association, the Chumuckla Community Center, or anyone associated with this, harmless for any and all injuries or accidents to yourself, you horse, anyone with you, or your vehicle and trailer. You are also verifying that you and your horse are able to ride in the parade without incident and assume responsibility with your horse.

There is a $10.00 entry fee plus a donation of a nice toy and non-perishable food item.

Proof of Negative Coggins is required**

You must ride back where you parked. No one is to be picked-up in the middle of the parade route, unless there is an emergency. Horses are not allowed to be ridden or walked in the ballpark at any time.
